ORDER-No.701, Finance (Allowances) Department,
Dated 31st August 1995.

According to rule 9(4) of the General Provident Fund (Tamil Nadu) Rules, voluntary increase over and above the rate of subscription prescribed by the Government is permissible and it shall be made by a subscriber only on two occasions in a year, namely in the salary for the march drawn in April and in the salary for September. Such members are also allowed to reduce the rate of subscription once a year subject to a minimum subscription prescribed by the Government.

2. At present Government employees are getting Dearness Allowance on par with Central Government twice a year and as the sanctions ordered at different months, the employees were not in a position to raise their subscription to General Provident Fund. In order to encourage employees to save more through the General Provident Fund, Government have decided to revise the General Provident Fund rules to enable subscribers to raise the subscription twice a year and to reduce the subscription once a year.

3. Accordingly, the Government direct that voluntary increase over and above the rate of General Provident Fund subscription prescribed in the Government Order second read above be permitted on two occasions in any of the months in a year. Further, reduction of subscription (not below the prescribed rate) shall be allowed only once a year viz. in the salary for the month of March payable in April.

4. These orders will apply to the subscribers of the following Provident Funds:-

1. General Provident Fund (Tamil Nadu)
2. Pudukkottai State Provident Fund, and
3. Tiruvancore State Provident Fund.
